Welcome to your dream home with a new solar panel system! This stunning executive residence features four spacious bedrooms, three and a half beautifully appointed bathrooms, and an executive kitchen that will delight any chef. Imagine cooking on a professional-grade gas stove, with a full-size Frigidaire Professional refrigerator and freezer side-by-side, all centered around a generous island topped with elegant stone countertops. Vaulted ceilings soar above the main living areas, where a breathtaking stone fireplace creates a warm, inviting atmosphere. The open floor plan flows seamlessly from the kitchen into the dining room, perfect for entertaining friends and family. Upstairs, you'll discover three large bedrooms plus a versatile bonus room. The primary suite offers a spa-like ensuite bathroom and a huge walk-in closet—your personal retreat. Downstairs, the fully developed basement expands your living space even further. A private office with sliding glass doors, a cozy TV room, a fourth bedroom, and a four-piece bathroom ensure there's room for everyone. Outside, the home received some impressive exterior upgrades in 2024. The driveway was widened for convenience and additional parking. The backyard has a brand new Barkman Quarry Stone Grand fireplace—complete with dual wood storage boxes helps create a comfortable conversation area and anchors the outdoor living area. A 12-by-20-foot fully wired gazebo complete with composite decking for maintenance free living is also equipped with its own 220-volt supply, invites year-round enjoyment. The yard also offer a lovely hot tub and 12 by 8 foot shed for all your storage needs. Finally, this home is as smart as it is beautiful, thanks to a full 17.22 kW solar panel system that keeps your energy costs low and your carbon footprint small. Don't miss the chance to call this
